fedjelandhandlerias@gmail.com
Tourist Information:
(+47) 909 77 203

Active vacation:

The North Sea Trail

Three paths through the cultural and natural history of Fedje.

Aurihopen

The perfect spot for a family picnic!

Bathing

If the weather is nice, why not go bathing in Husavatnet?

Øyane

«The islands» are situated just north of the Hellisøy Lighthouse.

Here you need a boat or a kayak and appropriate weather conditions. You should never go boating without checking the weather forecast!

Historical Fedje:

Fedje WWII site, Vidnappen

Fedje was strategically important for the Germans during WW2. At Vidnappen you can see the remains of the war time structures.

Fedje Church

The church was finished in 1941 and seats approx. 400 people.

There have been churches at the site of the present church since the 17th century.

Hellisøy Lighthouse

The light at Hellisøy was first lit in 1855. Today the lighthouse is automated. For visits: www.hellisoyfyr.no, hellisoyfyr@gmail.com.

Holmengrå Lighthouse

Coastal lighthouse from 1892. The lighthouse is not open to the public.
